St. John's Herr Estate Homecoming Week Celebration

On Tuesday, May 27, 2008, at 2 pm in the Chapel of the Good Shepherd, 200 Luther Lane, Columbia, St. John's Herr Estate will hold a special presentation, "Columbia – The Past as a Bridge to its Future," as part of the national celebration honoring American's seniors.

Presenting information on Columbia's history will be Claire Storm, Columbia native and local historian. Mayor Leo Lutz will speak about the future plans for Columbia and its riverfront. The residents of St. John's Herr Estate will have old photos, articles, high school yearbooks and various memorabilia on display.

St. John's Herr Estate is holding this presentation as part of the American Association of Homes and Services for the Aging's (AAHSA) inaugural homecoming celebration. Across the country, AAHSA not-for-profit members are opening their doors and hosting events like this presentation to honor the seniors they serve.

The presentation is open to the public and light refreshments will be served. For more information, please contact Marcie Berhaupt, Marketing Representative, at 717.684.0678.
