St. John's Herr Estate Assisted Living Residences Are Redesigned

St. John's Herr Estate's Assisted Living apartments have a new and modern look. Hilles Architects furnished the plans for the redesign and Arthur Funk & Sons, Lebanon, did the construction work. The new layout adds private showers to each of the residences and a small tea kitchen complete with a sink, personal storage and refrigerator. With the private showers and tea kitchens, St. John's Herr Estate Assisted Living now promotes independence and preserves the residents' dignity. It provides the residents a more home-like atmosphere. The residents can entertain friends and family in their own place, offering tea or cold drinks from their own refrigerator. Mrs. Helen Musser, former East Hempfield Township resident, said of her apartment, "Everything is so nice. I particularly like the new showers. And all the storage keeps my belongings neat and tidy." Mrs. Musser said she loves living at St. John's Herr Estate and all the residents are so very friendly.

In addition to the renovations, all residents received wireless call pendants. These allow all the residents, including Assisted Living, to go anywhere on campus and know that if they need help it's just a push of a button away.
