Bed Hold – Daily rate is based on the level of care when the resident left the center. According to our Bed Hold Standard, when a resident is hospitalized or on therapeutic leave of absence, the accommodation will be held at the daily rate, unless otherwise indicated by the resident or responsible party.

Included in your daily rate:

- Skilled nursing care
- Room and board
- Three nutritious meals (including special diets)
- Housekeeping services
- Personal laundry
- Cultural, educational, religious and social activities
- Chaplaincy services
- Social services/case management
- Oxygen while on Medicare Part A
- Pharmacy charges while on Medicare Part A

Current Medicare Guidance Summary information is available from the Business Office or Social Services.
